01 · MINDSET

Be decisive. It is better to make decisions and iterate. Decisiveness is like a muscle — the more you use it, the stronger it becomes.

THE LENS FLIP

Fix problems	Unlock potential
Diagnose and treat	Define outcomes
Paid per session	Paid for a result
Open-ended and ongoing	A clear pathway with an end point
Stabilize and cope	Elevate and thrive
Manage limitations	Expand potential

SPEAK THE NEW LANGUAGE

Patient → client · diagnosis → goals · treatment → strategy · session → milestone · coping → growth

THE SEVEN SHIFTS – PICK THREE

Fixed → growth · unworthy → capable · scarcity → abundance · money is evil → money is neutral · charge by time → charge by value · you're right → the market is right · quit by feeling → adapt by feedback.

THE FOUR SYMPTOMS TO WATCH IN YOURSELF

Overthinking · fear of selling · perfectionism · avoidance. When one shows up later dressed as a strategy problem — “I’m not sure about the niche”, “I want the program right before I sell it” — this card is where you look.

EVERYONE ON YOUR LIST IS ONE OF TWO THINGS

A lead might work with you. A connector knows somebody who might. Most people are connectors, and that is the larger opportunity.

THE LINE TO REMEMBER

Everything before your first client is a two-way door. You can walk any of it back — the niche, the price, the wording. The one exception is the lane between therapy and coaching, and that is why we protect it so hard.
